Years; Pal Stands Trial and Gets Twelve.

The advantage even to notorious crooks in telling the truth was demonstrated in the case of two pickpockets before Judge O'Sullivan in General Sessions to-day. One pickpooket, Philip Levy, mineteen years old, of No. 391 East Ninety-first street, who persisted in lying to the Court, received a sentence of twelve years in Sing Sing prison. His partner, Frederick Pessner, twenty-two years old, of No. 728 Fulton atreet. Brooklyn, who told the truth, was let off with a sentence of $1.00 $1.00 $1.00
